2.1 Novelty and Inventive Step:

D1, D3 and D5 are the nearest prior art to the invention claimed, each of which disclose a pipe insert which is adjustable in length. Thus, none of the documents D1-D5 cited in the International Search Report or any combination of them can be considered to anticipate the invention as defined in claim 1.

The dependent claims concern further developments of the invention and are also considered to be novel and inventive.

Therefore, the claims 1-23 are considered to meet the criteria of Novelty, Inventive Step.
